ALL MOUVEN

The Death of "Little Mac" of Potomac Fame.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Though no definite arrangements have been made in regard to the funeral of Gen. George B. McClellan, it is probable that the services will be held in the Madison Square Presbyterian church on Monday, and that the interment will be at Trenton. The family have been deluged with letters from all parts of this country and from Europe.

Gen. Fitz John Porter says that though Gen. McClellan's personal recollections were burned, he succeeded in reproducing most of them; that they will be published soon, and that they will create a stir equal to that caused by the publication of Mr. Depew's letter on the Grant-Johnson matter.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—It has been definitely arranged that the funeral of General McClellan will take place at 10 o'clock Monday morning next, from Madison Avenue Presbyterian church.

In accordance with a request of Mrs. McClellan there will be no military demonstration, although all the veterans who served under the general are invited to the funeral.

The publishers thus far selected are Gen. W. S. Hancock, Gen. Joseph E. Johnson, Gen. Martin T. McMahon, Gen. Fitz John Porter, Gen. W. B. Franklin, Hon. H. C. Kelsey and Cpl. E. H. Wright, of Newark.

The interment will take place in the family plot at Trenton. The Army of the Potomac will send representatives to the funeral.

General McClellan had been failing for months past and had not visited his office in two weeks, though it was not expected his illness would result fatally. He leaves a son and daughter, the former just completing his education. Soon as the news spread throughout the city, a great sorrow was expressed at the general's death. Flags on public buildings were placed at half-mast. The Grand Army Post has called a meeting to express sorrow and offer a body guard for the remains.

WASHINGTON, October 29.—The president has sent a telegram of condolence to Mrs. McClellan saying: "I am shocked by the news of your husband's death, and while I know how futile are all human efforts to console, I must assure you of my deep sympathy in your great grief and express to you my own sense of affliction at the loss of so good a friend."

The cabinet meeting to-day was shorter than usual. Postmaster General Vilas was the only absentee. The death of General McClellan was feelingly alluded to by the president and the members of the cabinet. The following executive order was issued to-day:

EXECUTIVE MANDATE.

WASHINGTON, October 27, 1885.
The death of George B. McClellan, at one time major-general commanding the armies of the United States, took place at an early hour this morning. As a mark of public respect to the memory of the distinguished soldier and citizen, whose military ability and civic virtues have shed luster upon the history of his country, it is ordered by the president that the national flag be displayed at half mast upon all the buildings of the departments of the city, until after his funeral shall have taken place.
(Signed) DANIEL S. LAMONT,
Private Secretary.

The following order was issued this afternoon:
WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29, 1885.
With profound regret the secretary of war announces to the army, the death of Gen'l. McClellan, formerly major general commanding the armies of the United States, which occurred at Orange, New Jersey, this morning. The name and fame of this famous soldier and citizen is known and honored throughout the republic, as the organizer of the army of the Potomac. He made it capable of accomplishing great deeds. The lessons he gave it were never forgotten and the spirit with which he animated it, continued through all its eventful history. Subsequently, as its leader, he rendered the greatest service to his country. His pure and noble character, his unselfish devotion and the duty he performed in the hour of peril, will cause his memory to be cherished with pride by the people of the United States.
(Signed) WM. C. ENDICOTT,
Secretary of War.

It is definitely learned to-day that General McClellan came very near being made a member of president Cleveland's cabinet and was tendered the Russian mission but declined it because of business engagements and that within the past twenty-four hours, the president had concluded to offer him an appointment as a member of the civil service commission. NEWARK, N. J., October, 29.—Governor Abbott has sent the following telegram to Mrs. McClellan:
STATE OF NEW JERSEY,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 29, '85
My Dear Madame:
I have just learned with profound sorrow, of the death of your distinguished husband. I speak not only for myself but for all the people of New Jersey, who will join in the universal mourning for the loss of a pure and upright citizen and a great soldier. I wish most earnestly to take such proper official action as will do honor to his memory. I have directed Adjutant General William S. Striker to ascertain your wishes, so that the action of the executive may be in full sympathy with your own feelings. I have the honor to be
Very respectfully yours,
LEON ABBETT.

To Mrs. George B. McClellan, West Orange, New York.
ORANGE, N. J., October 29.—Gen. George B. McClellan, ex-commander of the army of the United States, died suddenly this morning, at 10 minutes past 3 o'clock, from exhaustion produced by repeated shocks of neuralgia of the heart, at his home on Orange mountain. Though he had nearly completed his 55th year, he had preserved not only buoyant spirits but a buoyant youth. He began about three weeks ago to have pains of the heart. Neither he nor his physician, Dr. Seward, anticipated anything serious from it. He and everyone else believed yesterday, that the troublesome malady was either gone for good or at least for a long time. With that belief the general ordered his carriage yesterday, drove to Orange with his only daughter, saw several gentlemen on business and made an appointment for eleven o'clock to-day. He returned home in excellent spirits, ate heartily at his meal and retired to rest. About eleven o'clock the pains returned and a messenger was sent for the doctor, who came back with the least possible delay. When he entered the bedroom of the general, he found his patient in extreme agony. The paroxysm returned with a rhythmic frequency, that was alarming and the homeopathic remedies, which the skill of the doctor suggested, were no more efficient than those which had been supplied by the intelligent affection of Gen. McClellan's wife and daughter, who had ministered to him unceasingly from the first alarm. For four hours he suffered the most excruciating agony. About three o'clock, there was a change. The eyes of the patient began to grow brighter, and his face, which had been white with pain, began to recover its usual ruddy hue. He gave a long, deep sigh of relief, smiled faintly and said, "I feel easy now, thank God, I have pulled through." Then he sank back upon the pillow as if exhausted, closing his eyes. The doctor who was watching his face with extreme solicitude, saw the unerring signs of approaching collapse and whispered to Mrs. McClellan, "I fear he is dying." It was but too true. General McClellan raised himself up on one hand, half opened his eyes and fell back dead.

No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

The Ward Trial.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.
NEW YORK, October, 29.—While the morning Journals are unanimous that the conviction of Ferdinand Ward is a result upon which the community can be most heartily congratulated, the Times makes the additional point, "That the result could not have been so speedily reached, but for the admirable manner in which Judge Barrett conducted the trial. He has summarily repressed every trick and effort by prolonging the trial and he has successfully resisted every attempt to befog the question at issue."

THE CLOSE.

The School Teachers Have a Most Successful Institute—The Business To-day

Prof. Chester Lane, of the high school, read an excellent paper on the "Student Spirit" yesterday afternoon and was followed by Cyrus Smith, of Richmond, Prof. W. F. Heath, of Professor Bell and last, but not least, J. W. Holcombe, state superintendent of education, addressed the assembly on "Political Economy" making a brilliant argument. Professor Holcombe returned to Indianapolis last night.

In the evening Madame Katherine Gray recited to an intelligent assembly and gave her readings in a most artistic way.

After roll call this morning Rev. J. K. Waltz made a prayer and Miss Vail presented her class in reading. Prof. Bell spoke on "School Organizations," and Prof. Drier dwelt on the sciences and laboratory work, in which he excels.

The closing hours were devoted to arranging for the institute next year and finally an adjournment was had after the exchange of thanks, congratulations and expressions of good will.

All Hollowe'en.

To-morrow night is Hollowe'en, Hallows Eve, Hallowsmass Eve, or in Scotland, and as it is usually termed with us, Hollowe'en, the night of All Hallows, preceding All Saints' day, is, by custom but not by ecclesiastical command, a christian feast. It has always been the occasion of certain popular usages in christian countries, such as performances of spells by young people to discover their future wives or husbands and fire-side revelries, as cracking of nuts and ducking for apples. It was thought to be a night when witches, devils and other mischief making spirits are abroad in their baleful midnight errands, but people of the wiser age know usually that the destructive bodies are as human as ourselves and at times, when detection follows, turn them over to the hard-handed law. Bobbie Burns made memorable the feast with a poem.

Funeral of Rev. Wm. Sihler.

The remains of the late Rev. Dr. Wm. Sihler were reviewed by thousands of his lamenting parishioners and friends at St. Paul's Lutheran chapel to-day. At 1 o'clock preparations for the funeral were inaugurated and after solemn prayer services of the Lutheran ritual Rev. Mr. Schwan, of Cleveland, pronounced a most eloquent eulogy on the dead minister, paying the highest possible tribute to his life and grand labors. The funeral cortege extended almost from the church to the cemetery and people thronged the streets en route to the sacred ground, where again Rev. Mr. Sauer paid tribute to the memory of the illustrious divine, who in a costly casket was deposited in the earth amid the prayers and chantings of the assembled multitude of mourners. Thus is
"Life's race well run,
Life's work well done,
Life's crown well won—
Now comes rest."

A $4,500 Verdict.

The case of Mrs. Catherine Heilberg against Wm. Moellering came to a close in the Auburn circuit court yesterday, when the jury awarded Mrs. Heilberg $4,500 damages against Moellering. The woman's husband was employed by Moellering to tear down the old First Presbyterian church ruins. One of the walls tumbled prematurely and Heilberg sustained fatal injuries. His wife sued for $5,000 and received the handsome verdict above named. Messrs. Colerick & Oppenheim were attorneys for Mrs. Heilberg and the victory is quite complimentary to them.

The Wabash and the I. P. & C. By order of Judge Woods, of the federal court, the Wabash has turned over to the I. P. & C., railroad into the nominal possession of the bondholders. The Wabash will still operate the road and will pay the surplus earnings to the bondholders or put them into improvements. Thirty miles of the road from Indianapolis to Kokomo have been re-ballasted lately and laid with new steel rails and the remainder of the track will likewise be improved. The Wabash expects to buy the I. P. & C., when it is sold on foreclosure.

The teachers and pupils of the Monroeville schools will celebrate Wm. Cullen Bryant's birthday next Wednesday. A nice program is prepared for the occasion.

Some of the invaders have already reached Oklahoma and staked out claims and put up signs, "No trespassing allowed on this farm." Father, Mother, and Three Sisters Dead.
Mr. David Claypool, formerly Sergeant-at-Arms of the New Jersey Senate, and a Notary Public at Cedarville, Cumberland Co., N. J., makes the following startling statement: "My father, mother, and three sisters all died with consumption, and my lungs were so weak I raised blood. Nobody thought I could live. My work (ship-smithing) was very straining on me with my weak constitution, and I was rapidly going to the grave. While in this condition I commenced using Mischler's Herb Bitters, and it saved my life. Because it was so difficult to get it in this little place, and I had improved so much, I stopped taking it for a time, and the result is that I have commenced going rapidly down hill again. Mischler's Herb Bitters gives me appetite and strengthens and builds me up as nothing else does, and I must have a dozen bottles at once. Use this communication as you please, and if any one wants to be convinced of its truth, let them write me and I will make affidavit to it, for I owe my life to Mischler's Herb Bitters."
The secret of the almost invariable relief and cure of consumption, dysentery, diarrhea, dyspepsia, indigestion, kidney and liver complaints, when Mischler's Herb Bitters is used, is that it contains simple, harmless, and yet powerful ingredients, that act on the blood, kidneys, and liver, and through them strengthen and invigorate the whole system. Purely vegetable in its composition; prepared by a regular physician; a standard medicinal preparation; endorsed by physicians and druggists. These are four strong points in favor of Mischler's Herb Bitters. Mischler's Herb Bitters is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per large bottle. 6 bottles for $5.00.
Ask your druggist for Mischler's Herb Bitters. If he does not keep it, send him a postal card to Mischler's Herb Bitters Co., 225 Commerce Street, Philadelphia.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Thompson Opera company will present "Mikado" at the Temple Monday evening next. No opera ever booked here, save "Girofle-Girofa," excites so much attention. The libretto of the opera is the best that Gilbert has ever produced in the Gilbert and Sullivan series. The plot is a broad farce, and every incident is a minor absurdity. The Japanese setting really has little to do with the matter except to give it local color, an opportunity for burlesquing one of the popular crazes, and the more artistic opportunity for beautiful stage setting and novel and beautiful costumes.

The Japanese craze is burlesqued only in action and not in words, and forms a minor incident. The utter extravagance of the plot makes a framework into which all the rest of the Gilbertian absurdities, sarcasms and sentimental cynicisms easily fit. The real charms of the "Mikado" is the beautiful sarcasm with which stupid affections are treated. The man whose pride of ancestry runs back "to a protoplasmal primordial atomic globule" and the man who is "Warted by a favorite gale, As one sometimes is in trances, To a height that few can scale," are alike exposed in their ridiculous aspects. The dialogue, in dealing with minor details, is equally clever, and one social hit succeeds another. A good deal of the fun comes from the utter nonsense of the verses, which, however, always have a covert meaning and give a dig at some every-day fallacy. The delightful absurdity of the sentimental "titwallow" song illustrates this.

On a tree by a river a little town-tit Sang "Willow, titwallow, titwallow!" And I said to him "Dicky-bird, why do you sit Singing 'Willow, titwallow, titwallow?' Is it weakness of intellect, birdie?" I cried, "Or a rather tough worm in your little inside?" With a shake of his poor little head he replied, "Oh, willow, titwallow, titwallow!"

He snapped at his chest as he sat on that bough Singing, "Willow, titwallow, titwallow!" And a cold perspiration bespangled his brow, Oh willow, titwallow, titwallow! He sobbed and he sighed and a gurgle he gave, Then he threw himself into the billowy wave, And an echo arose from the suicide's grave— "Oh willow, titwallow, titwallow!"

The Bayce Comedy company gave "Hidden Hand" to a good business at the Academy last night, and to-night give "Lost and Won." This excellent party closes to-morrow night and Sid C. France, in "Marked for Life," opens Monday with a change of program each night for a week. This house is making money.

In a Mexican Restaurant.

From the Military Plaza in San Antonio a half dozen narrow streets branch off. Down the narrowest of these, which seems but a passage-way between the rows of somber houses that line either side—for this is "greaser town"—is a restaurant. The presiding genius of the place is a fat and handsome Mexican, whose untutored complexion glimmers in the glow of the charcoal fire that blazes softly in a cavernous, horizontal slit in the gigantic chimney. It is like no other cooking arrangement that ever was seen, and the method of the chef "is beyond compare." Dozens of shiny saucepans and skillets, set upon the coals, crowd the opening very much like invalid teeth in some great ogre's mouth, and in each of the little skillets and saucepans is the portion for one person.

The treasures of earth could not induce that oily cook to consolidate his dishes, and more especially to fry more than one egg at a time in his egg-pan; his laws are fixed and unalterable, and he regards the protests of his guests against cold eggs served in congealed oil with Mexican indifference.

Thirteen plates for the thirteen waiting customers stand ready to his hand, and the long-handled frying-pan makes thirteen separate journeys with thirteen separate eggs, the while that two assistants, a degree dirtier, oilier, and less fat, chop onions and grate cheese, which are spread finally over the chilled eggs and cold oil and placed before the hungry people, whom a day's anticipatory fast has prepared to accept anything with gratitude.

In lieu of a fork a very flat pancake, called a "tortilla," is doled out to each one. Years of practice are required for the successful manipulation of this most useful article, which, when you have done with as a scoop and have diligently and successfully chased the particles of food in the sea of oil that fills your plate, you are expected to eat as a final course—a most cleanly and labor-saving arrangement.—John McIntyre, in Home Journal.

The Dyspeptic's Refuge.

"I am thirty-five years old," writes Mr. Charles H. Watts, of West Somer, Putnam county, N. Y., "and had suffered from dyspepsia for fifteen years. The current treatment did me no good. Listlessly and without hope I gave Parker's Tonic a trial. I can give the result in three words: it cured me." It will cure you.

AN HOUR IN A DENTIST'S CHAIR.

With a Dissertation on Improved Dentistry Thrown In.
"Come in!" said the dentist pleasantly to a young man, whose face looked as if he was hiding an apple dumpling behind his cheek.

The young man gave a glance of apprehension around the room at the various implements of torture and sank into a cane-seat chair.

"Nice day," observed the dentist, with a smile. "Toothache?"

The young man nodded his head affirmatively.

"Take a seat in the chair," remarked the dentist. "Which tooth, please?"

The young man indicated as well as he could with the dentist's fingers in his mouth.

"Ah! yes. I see," returned the dentist, as he had found a quarter in his last summer's vest. "Does this hurt?" he asked, as he took the bludgeon end of a miniature crowbar and hammered on the aching member.

It seemed to.

"Keep your mouth open, please," continued the dentist, as he exchanged the crowbar for a rake. "A little wider, please. There, that will do. Now," he added, as he plunged the teeth of the implement into the crown of the tooth and scraped off the upper part of it, "can you feel this? Ah! Sensitive, is it? Well, I guess that is the tooth. The pulp is congested. Now, I've got to cut away the old filling and open a vent. Then we can kill the nerve and fill the tooth as good as new."

While the dentist was talking he placed a foot-lathe near the chair adjusted a drill in it, one or two sizes smaller than an anger, and started the machinery to work.

"Now," he added, as he stuffed the young man's mouth full of napkins, "open your mouth a little wider, please."

The young man dropped his chin upon his shirt bosom and breathed hard. The dentist inserted the drill into the tooth and began grinding.

"Does that hurt you?" he asked, cheerfully, as he bore down on the drill with 250 pounds of brute force. "Ah! I am almost down to the nerve. Did I touch it then? No? It doesn't bleed yet. Several years (gouge) ago it used (dig) to be barbarous (push) the way (here the operator laid aside the drill, and took up a small, sharp-edged hoe) dentists (scrape) treated (dig) their patients. Ah! I thought you wouldn't mind this (more scraping). I am almost (more digging) down to the (push) meat. But now (here he abandoned the hoe for a spike with a head on it like a feather duster), all this (rasp) is changed. It (dig) is a humane (scratch) profession now. We (punch) never hurt (scrape)—rasp—dig—rake—scratch—draw all in one! then now. I'm through, now; that's all right," he added pleasantly, as removed the gag from the young man's mouth, and gave him an opportunity to recover.

"Now," he continued, as he got out a formidable array of bottles, and prepared a mixture into which he dipped a small wad of cotton, "open your mouth, please. I will put this in, and it will kill your nerve. Hurt? Oh, no! It may pain you for a few minutes, but it will not hurt you to speak of. Come in next Monday, please, and I will renew the application. Three dollars, please.—New York Graphic.

Some one has declared conceit worse than consumption, and the comparison is a true one. Many are the "conceited" who cry down legitimate remedies, and who delude suffering humanity, whose only salvation is the immediate use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Is nature's own remedy, made from roots gathered from the forests of Georgia. The method by which it is made was obtained by a half breed from the Creek Indians who inhabited a certain portion of Georgia, which was communicated to one of the early settlers, and thus the formula has been handed down to the present day. The above cut represents the method of manufacture twenty years ago, by Mr. C. T. Swift, one of the present proprietors. The Daily Sentinel.
FRIDAY, OCT. 20, 1885.
Foreign News.

Paris, October 29.—Considerable excitement was created here to-day by an attempt to assassinate M. De Freycinet, the French minister of foreign affairs. After attending the cabinet meeting, M. De Freycinet took a drive and while returning to the building occupied by the ministry of foreign affairs, a man stepped out into the roadway and fired a pistol directly at the carriage in which was seated M. De Freycinet. Fortunately the shot was harmless and before the culprit could fire again, he was arrested by a police officer. When the would-be assassin was examined at the police station, he confessed he did not know M. De Freycinet personally and refused to give his name or occupation. The prisoner looks like a mechanic of superior intelligence and appears to be of Italian origin.

There is very little doubt that M. De Freycinet's assailant is an Italian, as he speaks with a strong Italian accent. He glories in the attempt on the life of the foreign minister and regrets that he failed to kill him. After being prevented from firing the second shot, he threw the revolver into the Seine. He is apparently of sound mind. M. De Freycinet shows no ill effects in consequence of the attempt on his life. He has received numerous congratulations upon his escape especially from the foreign diplomatic corps in the city. The assailant is a Corsican. He says his motive was revenge and was not of a political nature. He says he will make an explanation to-morrow, of his attempt to take the life of M. De Freycinet. He claims the services of a lawyer. A doctor will examine into his mental condition.

Two French men-of-war have been ordered to proceed at once to Guinea to protect French interests in that country. The dispute growing out of the rival claims, France and Portugal to certain sections of Guinea, has reached a crisis and serious events are feared.

LONDON, October 29.—Despatches from St. Petersburg state that the Russian cabinet officials allege that Austria and Serbia are intriguing for territorial aggrandizement detrimental to Russian interest in the Balkan Peninsula. The information must have been received from what they consider a reliable source, as Russia has for the past few days been secretly arming with the view of being prepared at any moment, should the contingency arise, to assert her claims in the Balkan States.

MADRID, October 29.—Prince Bismarck having refused to admit the claim of the Spanish priority of possession of the Island of Yap, Spain has prepared another note, containing a severe argument against the logical deduction of the German Chancellor and insisting on the acceptance of the claim of the Spanish priority.

BERLIN, October 27.—The general election for the new Prussian parliament will be held to-day. The Tarch are making great efforts to increase their strength. Thirty-five seats are required in order to secure an absolute majority over all other parties.

PHILIPPOPOLES, October 28.—The war fever had abated considerably during the past few days. Schools have been reopened and affairs are assuming a normal aspect.

CAIRO, October 30.—Sir Henry Drummond Wolf, the British envoy, arrived at Alexandria to-day from Constantinople. He was greeted with an artillery salute from the British and French men-of-war in the harbor and from the various Egyptian forts in the vicinity and was escorted by a guard of honor. A number of notables accompanied him to this city, where he arrived this afternoon, and received a semi-royal welcome.

General Grant's Body.
By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, October 29.—There has been much speculation as to whether General Grant's body will remain here or be removed from the state. These doubts grew out of a recently published statement, attributed to Hon. J. B. Chaffee to the effect that the family of General Grant did not wish the general's body to remain in this city and that congress, in its next session would take action on the matter. In order to make sure about the matter, the Grant monument association decided to take action, and on the 16th instant, Mayor Grace, the vice-president, wrote a letter to Mrs. Grant, stating the rumors at some length, saying that they were likely to interfere seriously with the raising of funds for the movement, and asking her to make a definite and positive statement upon the subject, to be given to the public. Her reply is appended:

NEW YORK, October 20, 1885.
DEAR SIR—Your letter of the 16th, came during my absence at Long Branch. Riverside park was selected by myself and family as the burial place of my husband, General Grant, first, because I believe New York was his preference; second,

It is near the residence that I hope to occupy as long as I live, and where I will be able to visit his resting place often; third I have believed and am now convinced that the tomb will be visited by many of his country men, here, as it would be at any other place; and fourth, the offer of a park in New York was the first which observed and unreservedly assented to the only condition imposed by General Grant himself, namely; that I should have a place by his side.

I am, sir, very Respectfully,
JULIA D. GRANT.
To William R. Grace, Mayor City of New York.

The East Saginaw Disaster.
By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., October 29.—It appears to-day that many of those reported missing last night, who were thought to have been drowned in the bridge disaster, have been found. Besides the one body found last night, two more boys are supposed to be drowned. These are J. Sharp and George Bumd, who were known to be on the bridge and are still missing. Men are busy dragging the river. The coroner's inquest began this morning.

EAST SAGINAW, Oct. 29.—The bodies of Albert Schenelski and John Carn, victims of last night's bridge disaster, were found to-day, making three bodies so far recovered. Three or four others are missing and it is thought they are among the lost. James I. Watts, who was rescued, will probably die, as he is in a critical condition from internal injuries.

"He jests at scars, who never felt a wound," and a man may stand with his hands in his pockets and laugh at a poor worn rheumatic, but if he is a gentleman, he'll step into the nearest apothecary shop and buy him a bottle of Salvation Oil at the small expense of twenty-five cents.

Narrow Escape.

ROCHESTER, June 1, 1885.—"Ten Years ago I was attacked with the most intense and deadly pain in my back and kidneys."

"Extending to the end of my toes and my brain!"

"Which made me delirious!"

"From agony!!!"

"It took three men to hold me on my bed at times!"

"The Doctors tried in vain to relieve me, but to no purpose."

"Morphine and other opiates!"

"Had no effect!"

After two months I was given up to die!!

When my wife heard a neighbor tell what Hop Bitters had done for her, she at once got and gave me some. The first dose eased my brain and seemed to go hunting through my system for the pain.

The second dose eased me so much that I slept two hours, something I had not done for two months. Before I had used five bottles, was well and at work as hard as any man could, for over three weeks; but I worked too hard for my strength, and taking a hard cold, I was taken with the most acute and painful rheumatism all through my system that ever was known.

"I called the doctors again, and after several weeks they left me a cripple on crutches, for life, as they said. I met a friend and told him my case, and he said Hop Bitters had cured him and would cure me. I pooled at him, but he was so earnest I was induced to use them again.

In less than four weeks I threw away my crutches and went to work lightly and kept on using the Bitters for five weeks, until I became as well as any man living and have been so for six years since.

It has also cured my wife, who had been sick for years; and has kept her and my children well and healthy with from two to three bottles per year. There is no need to besic at all if these Bitters are used. J. J. BERR, Ex-supervisor.

"That poor invalid wife, sister, mother, Or daughter!!!"

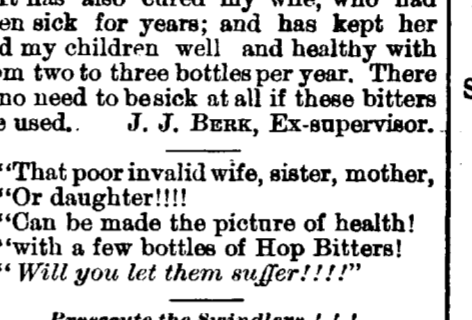

"Can be made the picture of health!"

"With a few bottles of Hop Bitters!"

"Will you let them suffer!!!"

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL

The New York board of health estimates that 30,000 lives have been destroyed by the explosive qualities of petroleum. If every household would adopt the White Seal Oil for family use, none of these unfortunate accidents would occur.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL has none of the defects usually found in common oils. It cannot be exploded, does not char the wick, will not smoke, emits no offensive odor, and prevents the breaking of chimneys.

WHITE SEAL BURNING OIL is a rich oil for illuminating purposes. It is as light in color as pure spring water. It gives a strong steady light, and burns much longer than common oil.

If the White Seal Burning Oil is not sold in your vicinity, send your order direct to us for a barrel or a case containing two neat five gallon cans.

Mike Wickliffe and bride were out behind a spanking team of bay horses this morning and indulged in a wedding tour of the principal streets. Yesterday the bride was out riding with her former husband, Lew Clark.

Miss Carrie A. Morgan, nee Johnson, of this city, is now located at No. 42 West 34th street, New York city. Miss Johnson is advertised as a dramatic reader and teacher of elocution and publishes among others a testimonial from THE SENTINEL.

Postmaster Kaough has received from the dead letter office, a postal note sent from this city to Toledo, September 4, addressed to Charley Sosty. The money was not called for at Toledo and returned here where the sender can get it if he proves the property.

"The fresco artists from Fort Wayne have completed the decoration of St. Michael's Catholic church at the cost of $230. The designs are tasteful and well chosen, and the workmanship of the best. The church has been transformed into a perfect gem in appearance," says the Plymouth Democrat.

There was a contest at Father Duemig's fair at Avilla last night for a silver tea set to determine which was the most popular supervisor, the contest being between Mr. Marion, of the Baltimore and Ohio, railroad who received 3,652 votes; to 2,867 for Mr. S. G. Scott, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad. The fair cleared over $690 out of the contest.

All soldiers, who served in the army of the Patomac, and all others so desiring, residing in this city or vicinity, are requested to meet at the office of Col. R. S. Robertson, this Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, to adopt resolutions of respect and condolence on the death of Maj. Gen. George B. McClellan, the same to be forwarded to the bereaved family. It is proper that they should thus honor their first commander.

Passenger travel on the Grand Rapids and Indiana, during the past two or three weeks, has been very good.

The old fire cistern on the corner of Clinton and Jefferson streets has been fenced in and will be filled.

The Fort Wayne banks did not hold a dollars worth of the fraudulent township warrants that agitate some parts of Indiana.

John Cendon, the Chicago sporting man, and formerly a Fort Wayne boy, has a fine farm near Logansport and on it some sixty head of the finest Jersey and Durham cattle in the country.

"The appointment of Hon. A. P. Edgerton, of Fort Wayne, is being urged for a place on the civil service commission. Mr. Edgerton is one of the brainiest men in the state and an excellent citizen in every particular," says the Huntington Democrat.

"A runner from Fort Wayne has been on a tear at this place, beginning Saturday. On Saturday night, he had a companion, and the two were very pugilistic. It is told that they came very near being perforated by a revolver in the hands of a LaGrange young man," says the LaGrange Standard.

The Chicago police have sent on here for a sketch of the life of A. J. Burrus, whose frightful double murder was detailed yesterday. Burrus shot at two Chinamen in 1877 and the Chinamen shot at Burrus, nothing came of the scrape, but a few police court fines. Captain Diehl has sent to Chicago his recollections of Burrus.

The Avilla fair continues to be a great card and to-night there will be a contest for a gold watch between the friends of Miss Jennie Sedgwick, of Albion, and a Miss Byrnes, of Kendallville. Miss Sedgwick was formerly of this city, and has many friends here. A party of gentlemen from Fort Wayne will attend the fair in the interest of the young lady from Albion.

Dr. S. D. Graves has been appointed by the Grand Rapids and Indiana to vaccinate all the employes of their road. Yesterday he was kept busy pointing the men in the general offices, yards and shops at Grand Rapids and this morning he started on a special train to vaccinate the employes on the northern division and branches, then returning to the Fort Wayne division.

A young lady informs us that the latest craze for fixing the hair of ladies is called the "Mikado style." It consists in brushing the hair straight up high in both front and back and forming it in a roll at the crown of the head. It plainly shows the forehead and is the means of beautifying many of the young ladies. Ancient maidens will reluctantly adopt this style of hair dressing, as it may uncover the wrinkles on their forehead.

How many trustees remember that in case fish ladders had not been built by dam owners on every dam four feet or over in height in their respective townships, by September 5, it is the duty of the trustee to build such fish ladder and collect the cost of the owner. It is a matter of considerable importance, worthy of a special act of the last legislature and lovers of good fishing, should keep the law fresh in the minds of those concerned.

The republican papers may with grace refrain from the slightest lament over Tom Sullivan's removal. During his fourteen year term of office, the republicans made three unsuccessful attempts to remove him. The democrats bagged him the first time. Mr. Sullivan is adjutant-general of the Grand Army of Indiana and that position pays him $75 a month. When Superintendent Burt asked Mr. Sullivan for his keys, Tom fired one of them into a stove. It was his personal property and he desired to show his contempt for a democratic administration.

The electric lights blazed with renewed brilliancy last night, and this morning a force of workmen are putting up handsome iron arms for street lamps, in place of the unsightly wooden extensions so long in use. In the past month the council has ordered two new electric light towers erected, at a cost to the local Electric Light company of $600 each. If this work continues the company will be glad to give a thousand dollars to some one to take the contract off its hands. It is hardly possible they contemplated such steep expenditure when they made the contract.

Congressman Robert Lowry returned from Washington to-day and is the picture of health. Judge Lowry has several fresh achievements to add to the laurels already won at the national capital.

The indications for the lower lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL, are as follows: Light rain or snow followed by fair weather, north to east winds, barometer, slight changes in temperature.

Officer Rohle, who is small but awfl, ran one John Stanley in for drunkenness last night. Stanley is over seven feet tall and a giant beside Rohle. The spectacle of the gallant little officer lugging the big fellow to the station house can be imagined.

Shook & Collier's great success, "A Prisoner for Life," will be given at the Temple to-night by an excellent company, who will repeat it again to-morrow night. This play has been sufficiently explained and needs no commendation at this late moment.

The St. Bernard uniformed branch, Catholic Knights of America, went to New Haven in a bus last evening and drilled with the local branch in that city. A reception was held after the clever manoeuvres were executed and a few pleasant hours passed.

A four-year-old child of Mr. Henry Pfeiffer, of the firm of Pfeiffer & Schlatter, fell into a pan of boiling water this morning, at the family home on East Wayne street, and was severely scalded. Dr. George L. Greenawalt relieved the suffering of the little one.

Officer Humbrecht picked Minnie Marshal from the gutter last night, dead drunk. The woman attended the Wickliffe-Clark nuptials and fell en route to the Oliver house from the Keystone block. She paid her fine and is said to be affianced to Lew Clark.

THE SENTINEL is under many obligations to Mr. George E. Young, the efficient postmaster at Pleasant Lake, Ind., for particulars of the murder near there yesterday. Jacobs, the murderer, has three sisters living here, and his fellow teamsters are also from Fort Wayne.

The News and Gazette admit there is no law by which a saloon door can be closed. Mayor Muhler is ever willing and ready to prosecute violations of the Sunday and 11 o'clock liquor law, if people who drink the liquor, sell the liquor or see it swallowed in the forbidden time, will but make affidavit to that effect. It is not expected that the chief executive of the city must stand about saloons to collect the evidence and file the affidavits himself. If people who harp about this nefarious business would file an affidavit once they would find that even a saloon keeper has rights that the city must respect. Prosecutor C. M. Dawson and his grand juries have made repeated efforts to convict saloon men but find it next to impossible to get any one to swear against them.

IT IS SEQUEL.

Enterprising Capitalists Rescue the Masonic Temple.

At a meeting of the Masonic Temple association last evening Messrs. Charles McCulloch, Alfred Hattersley, Oscar A. Simons, James Simonson, G. W. Pixley & Co., Root & Co., David N. Foster, Christian Boseker, J. K. McCracken and Henry W. Mordhurst leased the Masonic Temple property for ten years. The new lessees will equip the rooms above the opera house proper and the different Masonic bodies will occupy them. The syndicate has chosen Hon. Charles McCulloch president, Mr. Alfred Hattersley vice president, and Col. J. H. Simonson secretary and treasurer, and will assume all indebtedness and pay the interest on outstanding bonds promptly. Col. J. H. Simonson will continue to manage the Temple unless the association should see proper to rent it, a thing now improbable. THE SENTINEL is pleased with this change in the Temple affairs and the public certainly is.

The Final Chapter of a Scandal.

Late yesterday afternoon Mrs. Sarah E. Wickliffe was divorced from her husband, M. S. Wickliffe. The case was transferred from Judge O'Rourke and Judge Hench gave Mrs. Wickliffe all her husband's property and custody of their pretty children. An affidavit was read from Mrs. Jennie Clark, detailing her elopement with Mr. Wickliffe, giving the lie to the pleas of innocence affected after the return of the illicit lovers. Mrs. Wickliffe wept bitterly in the court room and her little children clung to her dress. The ink had scarcely dried on the divorce decree when Justice Ryan was summoned to the Keystone block where he united in marriage Mike Wickliffe and Mrs. Jennie Clark. There was revelry after the affair and here drops the curtain on a scandal already aired to much.

City Charters.

The cases of B. F. Wiley vs. the city of Bluffton, and William Warren vs. the city of Evansville were up for oral argument before the supreme court at Indianapolis yesterday. The question to be determined is whether or not the legislature has the power to amend the charter of a city, that has a charter adopted by a special act prior to the going into effect of the new constitution. This question is a very important one, inasmuch as if it is decided that the legislature has not that power nearly all the city charters in the state will be void. Judge Taylor, of Fort Wayne, is representing Wiley, and D. B. Kumler, of Evansville, is for Warren. Judge Claypool, of Indianapolis, is the attorney for the city of Bluffton, and J. B. Rucker, city attorney of Evansville, is for that city.

The Little River Ditch.

"A Democrat reporter, one day last week, had a conversation with Mr. Ellison, of Fort Wayne, an attorney who is interested in the famous Little River ditch. Mr. Ellison has been going over the ground with the gentleman appointed to make a review of the proposed ditch and tells us that they will complete their work in a few days and will make a report next month. He thinks that this apportionment will be much more satisfactory than the first, especially to residents of this county who very naturally object to donating their entire farm for the sake of having the ditch constructed. If we remember correctly, he said the assessment would be about three times the cost of the ditch, and each person assessed would only be required to pay his proportionate amount. This seems to be rather a mysterious way of getting at the matter, but then it may be the law," says the Huntington Democrat.

THE SENTINEL collectors will call on all subscribers to-morrow. We trust those in arrears will respond promptly.

Genuine Diamonds Found in Tea and Coffee.

The Empire Mills, of New York, have opened a store in this city, in the old Mayer House, on Calhoun street, for the purpose of introducing their new brands of Tea and Coffee, which are put up in paper cans; Coffee can and contents, about 3 pounds; Tea can and contents, about 1 1/2 pounds. As an extra inducement to purchasers this company will pack in each can of Coffee and Tea a souvenir or present, running in amount from 10c to $50, consisting of Nickel, Silver and solid Gold Watches, genuine Diamonds in solid Gold Settings and other jewelry. This company has adopted this expensive method so as to thoroughly advertise their goods in Fort Wayne and vicinity in the shortest time possible; but after thirty days this choice Tea and Coffee will be sold wholly on their merits by their agent in Fort Wayne at the same price, same quantity and same quality, but without the souvenirs, the Tea and Coffee being worth at a fair retail value more than the price asked without any regard to the souvenirs. This company is an old and well established one. It has already appointed over fifty agents in the various cities, none of whom are now selling souvenirs with their goods, yet each agent has a large and rapidly growing trade, as the superior quality of their Tea and Coffee becomes known. The Balkan Conference to be a Failure.
By Cable to THE SENTINEL.
LONDON, Oct. 30.—Opinion prevails in Bulgaria that the Balkan conference will prove a failure. The Serbian government has asked two army contractors at Braun for the terms on which they will cancel the recent large orders for uniforms etc.
The correspondent of the Vienna Free Press, together with several others, has been expelled from Roumania. Bucharest, Oct. 30.—Roumanian government has expelled a dozen eminent Jewish editors. This action is supposed to have been prompted by the attacks made by them upon the government.

ALL MOORE
The Death of "Little Mac" of Potomac Fame.
By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.
New York, Oct. 30.—Though no definite arrangements have been made in regard to the funeral of Gen. George B. McClellan, it is probable that the services will be held in the Madison Square Presbyterian church on Monday, and that the interment will be at Trenton. The family have been delayed with letters from all parts of this country and from Europe.

Gen. Fitz John Porter says that though Gen. McClellan's personal recollections were burned, he succeeded in reproducing most of them; that they will be published soon, and that they will create a stir equal to that caused by the publication of Mr. Depue's letter on the Grant-Johnston matter.
New York, Oct. 30.—It has been definitely arranged that the funeral of General McClellan will take place at 10 o'clock Monday morning next, from Madison Avenue Presbyterian church.

In accordance with a request of Mrs. McClellan there will be no military demonstration, although all the veterans who served under the general are invited to the funeral.
The pallbearers thus far selected are Gen. W. S. Hancock, Gen. Joseph E. Johnston, Gen. Martin T. McMahon, Gen. Fitz John Porter, Gen. W. B. Franklin, Hon. H. C. Kelsey and Col. E. H. Wright, of Newark.

The interment will take place in the family plot at Trenton. The Army of the Potomac will send representatives to the funeral.
General McClellan had been failing for months past and had not visited his office in two weeks, though it was not expected his illness would result fatally. He leaves a son and daughter, the former just completing his education. Soon as the news spread throughout the city, a great sorrow was expressed at the general's death. Flags on public buildings were placed at half-mast. The Grand Army Post has called a meeting to express sorrow and offer a body guard for the remains.

WASHINGTON, October 29.—The president has sent a telegram of condolence to Mrs. McClellan saying: "I am shocked by the news of your husband's death, and while I know how futile are all human efforts to console, I must assure you of my deep sympathy in your great grief, and express to you my own sense of affliction at the loss of so good a friend."
The cabinet meeting to-day was shorter than usual. Postmaster General Vilas was the only absentee. The death of General McClellan was feelingly alluded to by the president and the members of the cabinet. The following executive order was issued to-day:

EXECUTIVE MESSON.
WASHINGTON, October 27, 1885.
The death of George B. McClellan at one time major-general commanding the army of the United States, took place at an early hour this morning. As a mark of public respect to the memory of the distinguished soldier and citizen, whose military ability and civic virtues have shed lustre upon the history of his country, it is ordered by the president that the national flag be displayed at half mast upon all the buildings of the department of the city, until after his funeral shall have taken place.
(Signed) DANIEL S. LAMONT,
Private Secretary.

The following order was issued this afternoon:
WAR DEPARTMENT.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 29, 1885.
With profound regret the secretary of war announces to the army, the death of Gen. McClellan, formerly major-general commanding the army of the United States, which occurred at Orange, New Jersey, this morning. The name and fame of this famous soldier and citizen is known and honored throughout the republic, as the organizer of the army of the Potomac. He made it capable of accomplishing great deeds. The lessons he gave were never forgotten and the spirit with which he animated it, continued through all its eventful history. Subsequently, as its leader, he rendered the greatest service to his country. His pure and noble character, his unselfish devotion to the duty he performed in the hour of peril, will cause his memory to be cherished with pride by the people of the United States.
(Signed) Wm. C. ENDICOTT,
Secretary of War.

It is definitely learned to-day that General McClellan came very near being made a member of president Cleveland's cabinet and was tendered the Russian mission but declined it because of business engagements and that within the past twenty-four hours, the president had concluded to offer him an appointment as a member of the civil service commission.
NEWARK, N. J., October 29.—Governor Abbott has sent the following telegram to Mrs. McClellan:

STATE OF NEW JERSEY.
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.
TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 29, '85.
My Dear Madame:
I have just learned with profound sorrow, of the death of your distinguished husband. I speak not only for myself but for all the people of New Jersey, who will join in the universal mourning for the loss of a pure and upright citizen and a great soldier. I wish most earnestly to take such proper official action as will do honor to his memory. I have directed Adjutant General William S. Striker to ascertain your wishes, so that the action of the executive may be in full sympathy with your own feelings. I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully yours,
LEON ARBETT.

To Mrs. George B. McClellan, West Orange, New York.
ORANGE, N. J., October 29.—Gen. George B. McClellan, ex-commander of the army of the United States, died suddenly this morning, at 10 minutes past 3 o'clock, from exhaustion produced by repeated shocks of neuralgia of the heart, at his home on Orange mountain. Though he had nearly completed his 55th year, he had preserved not only buoyant spirits but a buoyant youth. He began about three weeks ago to have pains of the heart. Neither he nor his physician, Dr. Seward, anticipated anything serious from it. He and everyone else believed yesterday, that the troublesome malady was either gone for good or at least for a long time. With that belief the general ordered his carriage yesterday, drove to Orange with his only daughter, saw several gentlemen on business and made an appointment for eleven o'clock to-day. He returned home in excellent spirits, ate heartily at his usual hour and retired to rest. About eleven o'clock the pains returned and a messenger was sent for the doctor, who came back with the least possible delay. When he entered the bedroom of the general, he found his patient in extreme agony. The paroxysm returned with a rhythmic frequency, that was alarming and the homeopathic remedy, which the skill of the doctor suggested, were no more efficient than those which had been supplied by the intelligent attention of Gen. McClellan's wife and daughter, who had ministered to him incessantly from the first alarm. For four hours he suffered the most excruciating agony. About three o'clock, there was a change. The eyes of the patient began to grow brighter, and his face, which had been white with pain, began to recover its usual ruddy hue. He gave a long, deep sigh of relief, smiled faintly and said, "I feel easy now, thank God, I have pulled through." Then he sank back upon the pillow as if exhausted, closing his eyes. The doctor who was watching his face with extreme solicitude, saw the unerring signs of approaching collapse and whispered to Mrs. McClellan, "I fear he is dying." It was but too true. General McClellan raised himself up on one hand, half opened his eyes and fell back dead.

No arrangements have as yet been made for the funeral.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.
New York, October 29.—While the morning journals are unanimous that the conviction of Ferdinand Ward is a result upon which the community can be most heartily congratulated, the Times makes the additional point, "That the result could not have been so speedily reached, but for the admirable manner in which Judge Barrett conducted the trial. He has summarily repressed every trick and effort by prolonging the trial and he has successfully resisted every attempt to befog the question at issue."

THE CLOSE.
The School Teachers Have a Most Successful Institute—The Business To-day.

Prof. Chester Lane, of the high school, read an excellent paper on the "Student Spirit" yesterday afternoon and was followed by Cyrus Smith, of Richmond, Prof. W. F. Heath, Professor Bell and last, but not least, J. W. Holcombe, state superintendent of education, addressed the assembly on "Political Economy" making a brilliant argument. Professor Holcombe returned to Indianapolis last night.

In the evening Madame Katherine Gray recited to an intelligent assembly and gave her readings in a most artistic way.
After roll call this morning Rev. J. K. Waltz made a prayer and Miss Vail presented her class in reading. Prof. Bell spoke on "School Organizations," and Prof. Dierdelt on the sciences and laboratory work, in which he excels.

The closing hours were devoted to arranging for the institute next year and finally an adjournment was had after the exchange of thanks, congratulations and expressions of good will.
All Hallowe'en.
To-morrow night is Hallowe'en, Hallow Eve, Hallowmas Eve, or in Scotland, and as it is usually termed with us, Hallowe'en, the night of All Hallowes, preceding All Saints' day, is, by custom but not by ecclesiastical command, a christian feast. It has always been the occasion of certain popular usages in christian countries, such as performances of spells by young people to discover their future wives or husbands and fire-side revelries, as cracking of nuts and darning for apples. It was thought to be a night when witches, devils and other mischief making spirits are abroad in their baleful midnight errands, but people of the wiser age know usually that the destructive bodies are as human as ourselves and at times, when detection follows, turn them over to the hard-handed law. Bobbie Burns made memorable the first with a poem.

Funeral of Rev. Wm. Sihler.
The remains of the late Rev. Dr. Wm. Sihler were reviewed by thousands of his lamenting parishioners and friends at St. Paul's Lutheran chapel to-day. At 1 o'clock preparations for the funeral were inaugurated and after solemn prayer services of the Lutheran ritual Rev. Mr. Schwan, of Cleveland, pronounced a most eloquent eulogy on the dead minister, paying the highest possible tribute to his life and grand labors. The funeral cortege extended almost from the church to the cemetery and people thronged the streets en route to the sacred ground, where again Rev. Mr. Sauer paid tribute to the memory of the illustrious divine, who in a costly casket was deposited in the earth amid the prayers and chantings of the assembled multitude of mourners. Thus is
"Life's race well run,
Life's work well done,
Life's crown well won—
Now comes rest."

A $4,500 Verdict.
The case of Mrs. Catherine Heilberg against Wm. Moellering came to a close in the Auburn circuit court yesterday, when the jury awarded Mrs. Heilberg $4,500 damages against Moellering. The woman's husband was employed by Moellering to tear down the old First Presbyterian church ruins. One of the walls tumbled prematurely and Heilberg sustained fatal injuries. His wife sued for $5,000 and received the handsome verdict above named. Messrs. Colerick & Oppenheim were attorneys for Mrs. Heilberg and the victory is quite complimentary to them.

The Wabash and the I. P. & C.
By order of Judge Woods, of the federal court, the Wabash has turned over the I. P. & C. railroad into the nominal possession of the bondholders. The Wabash will still operate the road and will pay the surplus earnings to the bondholders or put them into improvements. Thirty miles of the road from Indianapolis to Kokomo have been re-laid lately and laid with new steel rails and the remainder of the track will likewise be improved. The Wabash expects to buy the I. P. & C., when it is sold on foreclosure.

The teachers and pupils of the Monroville schools will celebrate Wm. Culbertson's birthday next Wednesday. A nice program is prepared for the occasion.

A young lady informs us that the latest craze for fixing the hair of ladies is called the "Mikado style." It consists in brushing the hair straight up high in both front and back and forming it in a roll at the crown of the head. It plainly shows the forehead and is the means of beautifying many of the young ladies. Ancient maidens will reluctantly adopt this style of hair dressing, as it may uncover the wrinkles on their forehead.

Jerry Hilligan's sudden departure will be investigated by the grand jury unless he returns to straighten his affairs.

The Barre Dramatic company will play "Lost and Won" at a matinee performance at the Academy to-morrow afternoon.

By special request the Barre Dramatic company will give a matinee performance at the Academy to-morrow afternoon, playing "Lost and Won."

Congressman Robert Lowry returned from Washington to-day and is the picture of health. Judge Lowry has several fresh achievements to add to the laurels already won at the national capital.

The indications for the lower lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL, are as follows: Light rain or snow followed by fair weather, north to east winds, barometer, slight changes in temperature.

Officer Roble, who is small but awful, ran one John Stanley in for drunkenness last night. Stanley is over seven feet tall and a giant beside Roble. The spectacle of the gallant little officer lugging the big fellow to the station house can be imagined.

Shook & Collier's great success, "A Prisoner for Life," will be given at the Temple to-night by an excellent company, who will repeat it again to-morrow night. This play has been sufficiently explained and needs no commendation at this late moment.

The St. Bernard uniformed branch, Catholic Knights of America, went to New Haven in a bus last evening and drilled with the local branch in that city. A reception was held after the clever maneuvers were executed and a few pleasant hours passed.

A four-year-old child of Mr. Henry Pfeiffer, of the firm of Pfeiffer & Schlatler, fell into a pan of boiling water this morning, at the family home on East Wayne street, and was severely scalded. Dr. George L. Greenawald relieved the suffering of the little one.

Officer Humbrecht picked Minnie Marshall from the gutter last night, dead drunk. The woman attended the Wickliffe-Clark nuptials and fell en route to the Oliver house from the Keystone block. She paid her fine and is said to be affianced to Lew Clark.

THE SENTINEL is under many obligations to Mr. George E. Young, the efficient postmaster at Pleasant Lake, Ind., for particulars of the murder near there yesterday. Jacobs, the murderer, has three sisters living here, and his fellow teamsters are also from Fort Wayne.

The News and Gazette admit there is no law by which a saloon door can be closed. Mayor Muhler is ever willing and ready to prosecute violations of the Sunday and 11 o'clock liquor law, if people who drink the liquor, sell the liquor or see it swallowed in the forbidden time, will but make affidavit to that effect. It is not expected that the chief executive of the city must stand about saloons to collect the evidence and file the affidavits himself. If people who harp about this nefarious business would file an affidavit once they would find that even a saloon keeper has rights that the city must respect. Prosecutor C. M. Dawson and his grand jurors have made repeated efforts to convict saloon men but find it next to impossible to get any one to swear against them.

Enterprising Capitalists Rescue the Masonic Temple.

At a meeting of the Masonic Temple association last evening Messrs. Charles McCulloch, Alfred Hatterley, Oscar A. Simons, James Simonson, G. W. Pitley & Co., Root & Co., David N. Foster, Christian Bowker, J. K. McCracken and Henry W. Mordhurst leased the Masonic Temple property for ten years. The new lessees will equip the rooms above the opera house proper and the different Masonic bodies will occupy them. The syndicate has chosen Hon. Charles McCulloch president, Mr. Alfred Hatterley vice president, and Col. J. H. Simonson secretary and treasurer, and will assume all indebtedness and pay the interest on outstanding bonds promptly. Col. J. H. Simonson will continue to manage the Temple unless the association should see proper to rent it, a thing now improbable. THE SENTINEL is pleased with this change in the Temple affairs and the public certainly is.

The Final Chapter of a Scandal.

Late yesterday afternoon Mrs. Sarah E. Wickliffe was divorced from her husband, M. S. Wickliffe. The case was transferred from Judge O'Hourke and Judge Hench gave Mrs. Wickliffe all her husband's property and custody of their pretty children. An affidavit was read from Mrs. Jennie Clark, detailing her elopement with Mr. Wickliffe, giving the lie to the pleas of innocence affected after the return of the illicit lovers. Mrs. Wickliffe wept bitterly in the court room and her little children clung to her dress. The ink had scarcely dried on the divorce decree when Justice Ryan was summoned to the Keystone block where he noited in marriage Mike Wickliffe and Mrs. Jennie Clark. There was revelry after the affair and here drops the curtain on a scandal already aired to much.

City Charters.

The cases of B. F. Wiley vs. the city of Bluffton, and William Warren vs. the city of Evansville were up for oral argument before the supreme court at Indianapolis yesterday. The question to be determined is whether or not the legislature has the power to amend the charter of a city, that has a charter adopted by a special act prior to the going into effect of the new constitution. This question is a very important one, inasmuch as if it is decided that the legislature has not that power nearly all the city charters in the state will be void. Judge Taylor, of Fort Wayne, is representing Wiley, and D. B. Knudler, of Evansville, is for Warren. Judge Claypool, of Indianapolis, is the attorney for the city of Bluffton, and J. B. Rucker, city attorney of Evansville, is for that city.

The Little River Ditch.

"A Democrat reporter, one day last week, had a conversation with Mr. Ellison, of Fort Wayne, an attorney who is interested in the famous Little River ditch. Mr. Ellison has been going over the ground with the gentleman appointed to make a review of the proposed ditch and tells us that they will complete their work in a few days and will make a report next month. He thinks that this apportionment will be much more satisfactory than the first, especially to residents of this county who very naturally object to donating their entire farm for the sake of having the ditch constructed. If we remember correctly, he said the assessment would be about three times the cost of the ditch, and each person assessed would only be required to pay his proportionate amount. This seems to be rather a mysterious way of getting at the matter, but then it may be the law," says the Huntington Democrat.

THE SENTINEL collectors will call on all subscribers to-morrow. We trust those in arrears will respond promptly.

Genuine Diamonds Found in Tea and Coffee.

The Empire Mills, of New York, have opened a store in this city, in the old Mayer House, on Calhoun street, for the purpose of introducing their new brands of Tea and Coffee, which are put up in paper cans; Coffee can and contents, about 3 pounds; Tea can and contents, about 1 1/2 pounds. As an extra inducement to purchasers this company will pack in each can of Coffee and Tea a souvenir or present, running in amount from 10c to $3.00, consisting of Nickel, Silver and solid Gold Watches, genuine Diamonds in solid Gold Settings and other jewelry. This company has adopted this expensive method so as to thoroughly advertise their goods in Fort Wayne and vicinity in the shortest time possible; but after thirty days this choice Tea and Coffee will be sold wholly on their merits by their agent in Fort Wayne at the same price, same quantity and same quality, but without the souvenir, the Tea and Coffee being worth at a fair retail value more than the price asked without any regard to the souvenirs. This company is an old and well established one. It has already appointed over fifty agents in the various cities, none of whom are now selling souvenirs with their goods, yet each agent has a large and rapidly growing trade, as the superior quality of their Tea and Coffee becomes known. Prices: Single can, $1; six cans, $5; thirteen cans, $10; twenty-seven cans, $20. Send in your orders by mail accompanied by cash or post-office order and they will be forwarded to any address.
